

Instructions

Cut and fold the square in half diagonally then fold each corner to the middle. Repeat along the straight edges until every dotted line is folded. Fold one flat side into the centre then fold back the corner and fold the next side. When all four sides are done it will leave you with what looks like a pinwheel. Open out each corner and flatten it down. Play with the folds to create the alternative images.

