Celebration saving

Just like today's weddings the outfits were special. Can you identify the parts of the brides outfit?

golden gifts from relatives

flowers thrown by guests

crown of gold or flowers

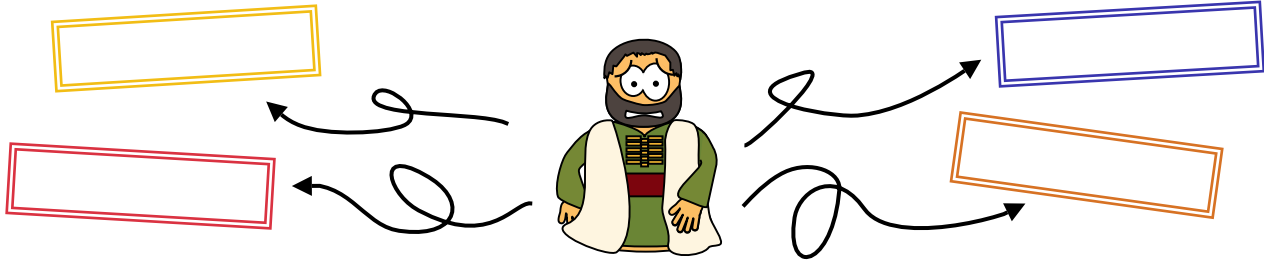

embroidered cloth

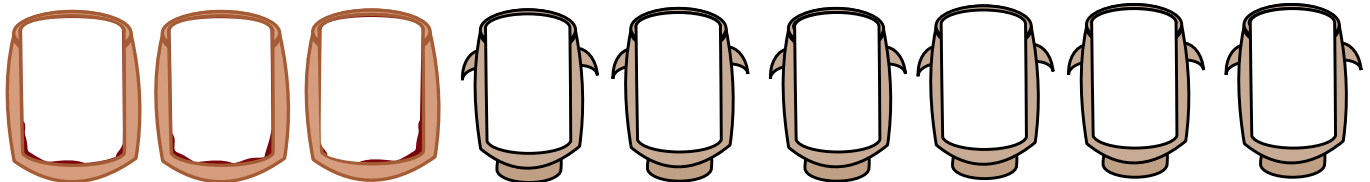

gown woven with gold

jewels and jewelry

This master of the feast has a lot to remember for the groom. What things could be making him worried?

All the clay jars of wine have run empty, fill up the stone jars as Jesus instructed.

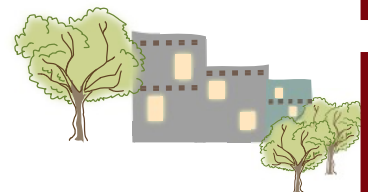

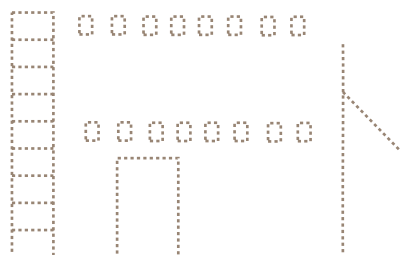

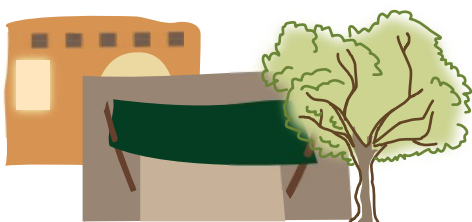

Looking at the wine Jesus provided, how would you describe the amount? (Mark the scale)

How does that make you feel about Jesus responding to our needs?

Once married the bride would leave her house and go to the house of the groom, or the grooms family. Often the groom would build a new house for the bride. Can you finish the house for the new couple?

Jesus talks in John 14:3 about how, just like the bride groom, he too will prepare a room for us. Talk to those around you about how that promise may have been heard by the crowd and how that promise makes us feel today.
