

You'll need:

Scissors, sticky tape &
an awl.

Instructions

Cut out all the pieces.

Removing the central white circles using an awl or hole punch.

Stack the circles, placing the dark circle above and the blank circle on the bottom. Thread the tab of dark circle behind the lighter piece.

Use the small tab to secure the light piece to the back of the blank circle with tape.

Add a split pin in the centre and slide around to reveal the light.
